November list of the dead.

There is an envelope in your envelope box for our November list of the dead. Please note those you would like to be remembered in these masses on the list and place the list and your donation in the envelope. Thank you

Perpetual light shine upon them

The act of placing a candle for a loved one on the cross, brings together two essential parts of our faith: the hope and light of Christ and the remembrance of those who have gone before us. The candle's flame becomes a beautiful symbol of the eternal light of God, illuminating the darkness of death. And placing it on the cross we venerate on Good Friday, draws a direct line to Christ's own sacrifice, reminding us that, through His love and resurrection, death has been transformed into a pathway to new life. In that small but yet powerful gesture, we reaffirm our hope in the resurrection and the communion we share with those we've lost.

Clonmore coffee shop will host a Christmas fair in the community centre (old national school beside the Castle) following mass on Sunday 1st December until 3.30p.m. Local stall holders will have pottery, preserves, candles, Christmas crafts, beading/crochet, eco firelighters, wooden reindeers and baked goods for sale. Complimentary tea/coffee, mince pies and children's entertainment. There will be a collection for the Irish Motor Neurone Association, support would be greatly appreciated.
